

ICELAND 2024: LAND OF FIRE AND ICE

SNÆFELLSNES | SOUTH COAST | GOLDEN CIRCLE

22-29 SEPTEMBER 2024

$12,800* per person

Join Gill Fry and Páll Jökull for a photography trip of a lifetime of spectacular Iceland.

Iceland is known as the land of fire and ice due to its large volcanic area fuelled by the Mid Atlantic Ridge and its many glaciers due to the proximity to the Arctic circle.

The area covered by Vatnajökull (Vatna Glacier), the country's largest, is equal to the combined total area covered by all the glaciers on the continent of Europe.

Iceland is like nowhere else on earth.

- Huge waterfalls
- Stellar mountains
- Glaciers
- Ice on the black sand beach

A photographers delight!

Is Iceland on your bucket list?
Don't dream it! Do it!

WHAT YOU WILL PHOTOGRAPH

Below is a guide of the places we will see.

The itinerary could be modified to get the most out of the places and weather conditions.

Aurora Borealis

Aurora Borealis (depending on cloud and aurora conditions). The aurora can never be guaranteed but if the night is clear, we will be chasing!!!

Snæfellsnes Peninsula

First we head to Snæfellsnes Peninsula; including Hraunfossar waterfall, Húsafell, Kirkjufell mountain, Svöðufoss waterfall and other locations on the north side of the peninsula.

On the southern side is Búðir (Black) church, Arnarstapi village, Lóndrangar stacks and Djúpalónssandur. We will of course visit the famous Kirkjufell mountain and Kirkjufellsfoss waterfall.

Iceland South Coast

Then we head to the south coast of Iceland to visit the waterfalls of Seljalandsfoss, Skógafoss, Kvernufoss.

On the coast we also go to Dyrhólaey lighthouse and the black sand beach at Reynisfjara.

Fire & Ice

Iceland is known as the land of fire and ice. So we have to visit the Katla Ice Cave, Jökulsárlón diamond beach. Jökulsárlón and Fjallsárlón glacier lagoon and other glaciers in the area.

Vestrahorn

We also visit Vestrahorn, a photographers dream location where you will definitely need a wide angle lens.

Golden Circle

Finally we visit the Golden circle, Gullfoss waterfall, Geysir geothermal, Brúarfoss waterfall and Thingvellir national park.

DAILY ITINERARY

This meticulously crafted itinerary promises not only an immersive experience into the heart of Iceland's diverse landscapes but also ample opportunities for photography enthusiasts to capture the awe-inspiring beauty that defines each location.

1 Snæfellsnes Serenity 22 September 2024

Embark on your photographic odyssey with a morning pick-up at your Reykjavik hotel. As we traverse towards Snæfellsnes, prepare to be enchanted by the ethereal beauty of Hraunfossar waterfall, Húsafell, Kirkjufell mountain, and other hidden gems on the north side of the peninsula. The night finds us nestled in the warm embrace of Langaholt guesthouse, promising a cozy haven after a day of exploration.

2 Captivating Snæfellsnes 23 September 2024

Awaken to the allure of the sunrise at Búðir church, setting the stage for a day of exploration in Arnarstapi village, Lóndrangar stacks, Djúpalónssandur, Svöðufoss waterfall, and the iconic Kirkjufell mountain.

Return to Langaholt for a restful night, as your senses revel in the captivating beauty of Snæfellsnes.

3 Southbound Splendors 24 September 2024

Greet the day with sunrise and breakfast, then bid farewell to Snæfellsnes as we journey southward to Vík.

Immerse yourself in the splendors of Seljalandsfoss, Skógafoss, Kvernufoss, and Dyrhólaey, culminating in a two-night stay at the picturesque Katla Hotel in Vík.

4 Ice Cave Adventure 25 September 2024

Witness the mesmerizing sunrise at Reynisfjara's black sand beach, and embark on an adventure to the ice caves.

As the day unfolds, savor the warmth of sunset at Dyrhólaey lighthouse, a poetic ode to the beauty of Iceland.

5 Glacial Grandeur 26 September 2024

After breakfast, journey to Jökulsárlón diamond beach, where glaciers dance with the waves. Explore Jökulsárlón and Fjallsárlón glacier lagoon, and revel in the grandeur of nearby glaciers.

The day concludes with a sunset spectacle at Jökulsárlón glacier lagoon, a symphony of colors reflected on the icy canvas.

6 Peaks and Reflections 27 September 2024

As the sun graces Jökulsárlón with its first light, capture the magic of sunrise. After breakfast, venture towards Vestrahorn and Stokksnes for an awe-inspiring encounter with peaks and reflections.

Return to Jökulsárlón for a breathtaking sunset, a perfect encore to a day filled with photographic marvels.

7 Diamond Beach Magic 28 September 2024

Experience the enchantment of Diamond beach in the morning light, capturing the magic before breakfast. Bid farewell to Jökulsárlón as we journey back towards Hella, exploring Svínafellsjökull glacier and other captivating locations along the way.

A night of relaxation awaits at Stracta Hotel in Hella.

8 Golden Circle Finale 29 September 2024

Conclude your Icelandic symphony with a final crescendo in the Golden Circle. Explore the roaring Gullfoss waterfall, the geothermal wonders of Geysir, the hidden beauty of Brúarfoss waterfall, and the historic Thingvellir National Park.

The tour concludes in Reykjavík, a fitting finale to an extraordinary photographic journey.

WHY SEPTEMBER

In late September, Iceland experiences the onset of autumn, presenting a unique and enchanting atmosphere for travelers.

A photographers delight!

The weather during this time is characterized by cooler temperatures, ranging from 5 to 12 degrees Celsius (41 to 54 degrees Fahrenheit), providing a refreshing and crisp climate that is perfect for outdoor exploration.

The landscape undergoes a captivating transformation as the vibrant hues of summer give way to the rich and warm colors of fall, painting the iconic Icelandic scenery with golden and russet tones.

This season offers a splendid balance between lingering daylight and the possibility of witnessing the mesmerizing Northern Lights as darkness gradually returns.

Traveling to Iceland in late September provides a quieter and more intimate experience, allowing visitors to immerse themselves in the natural wonders, from cascading waterfalls to dramatic glaciers, without the crowds typical of peak tourist season.

Whether you're seeking breathtaking landscapes, a sense of tranquility, or the chance to witness the dancing auroras, late September in Iceland promises a magical and unforgettable journey.

ICELAND FACTS

Iceland is a Nordic island nation in the North Atlantic.
Reykjavik, its capital, is the northernmost capital of a sovereign state in the world.

Did you know?

1. Home to stunning landscapes, including geysers, waterfalls, and glaciers, Iceland has a population of around 366,000 people.
2. One of the most photographed locations in Iceland is the iconic Kirkjufell mountain. Located on the Snæfellsnes Peninsula, Kirkjufell is a beautifully symmetrical peak surrounded by scenic landscapes, waterfalls, and the nearby Kirkjufellsfoss waterfall. Its striking appearance has made it a favorite among photographers capturing the beauty of Iceland.
3. Renewable energy powers nearly 100% of its electricity and heating.
4. The country has a rich cultural heritage, including Norse sagas. Icelanders believe in elves and hidden people, known as "Huldufólk."
5. The Blue Lagoon is a famous geothermal spa attracting visitors worldwide.
6. Iceland sits on the Mid-Atlantic Ridge, making it geologically active with frequent volcanic activity.
7. Iceland is home to numerous waterfalls, and it's challenging to provide an exact count as new ones are discovered, and some may not have been officially named. However, estimates suggest there are over 10,000 waterfalls in Iceland, ranging from small and unnamed falls to larger, well-known ones like Gullfoss, Seljalandsfoss, and Skogafoss. The abundance of waterfalls is a result of Iceland's diverse and dynamic landscape, with glacial rivers, volcanic terrain, and abundant precipitation contributing to their formation.
